PRAYER FOR LIFE

Father and maker of all,
you adorn all creation
with splendor and beauty,
and fashion human lives
in your image and likeness.

Awaken in every heart
reverence for the work of your hands, and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.
Amen

Faith Step

One BODY, One SPIRIT, One HOPE.

Every year, Christians around the world come together to observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

From January 18 through January 25, they celebrate the truth that, "What unites us is much greater than what divides us" (Pope John II).

Can you spend time every day praying for this. As you do, know that you are joining people from all over the world, your brother and sisters in Christ, in begging God to heal our divisions and help us work together for the unity that he so deeply wants for us. Lord, make us one!

Lord Jesus Christ,
you show us how to be patient with one another in humility and gentleness.
May the light you have shined on our path lead us towards unity and help us heal the wounds of division and indifference that often break communities apart.

Amen

With all humility and gentleness, with patience, bear with one another in love.
(Ephesians 4:2)

Mass Offerings. The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones, living or deceased, is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition.

One of the greatest things we can do for those we love is offer the sacrifice of Mass.

There are still many remaining dates in 2026.

If you would like to schedule a Mass, please call the parish office (715) 824-3455, stop in Tuesday through Thursday, or email catholiccentral54406@gmail.com. (If emailing, please include any special date requests you might have.)

The suggested Mass offering is $20—which gets passed along to the priest.

"Be kind and merciful. Let no one ever come to you without coming away better and happier."

Did you Know?

From Our Sacred Worship Committee

During this liturgical year, the Gospel readings feature those of Matthew.

We know that Matthew was one of Jesus' chosen 12 apostles. He was also called Levi and was a tax collector. In those days, tax collectors were disliked and shunned from the Jewish community. The money they collected, in the form of taxes, was turned over to the Romans. Tax collectors were known to add on extra costs that they used for personal gain. Hence, when Jesus called Matthew, he was calling someone who was considered a sinner and one who was on the lower rungs of Jewish society.

None of the Gospels mention the name of the author in their text. The early Christian community knew who the authors were for these texts and provided titles accordingly. Though questioned in modern times, Matthew has been considered the undisputed and uncontested author by the Catholic Church for nearly 1800 years.

Aside from being a tax collector, and likely a scribe, what else do we know about Matthew? In Mt 9:9-10, Lk 5:27-29, and Mk 2:14-15 we are told of the calling of Matthew, the son of Alphaeus, by the words of Jesus, “Follow me”. He and his disciples then went to his house and sat at table with him and “other sinners”.

The only other time Matthew is mentioned by name in the New Testament is at Pentecost, where he was present in the Upper Room.

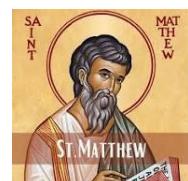

The authors of each Gospel were writing to a specific audience. In Matthew's case, it is believed that he was writing to Jewish Christians living in and around Palestine. Because of this Jewish heritage, Matthew assumes that they were familiar with Jewish customs, practices and the Hebrew scriptures. He refers to more than one hundred quotes and references to the Old Testament, revealing their spiritual meaning as they are fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

Matthew's gospel was written in Hebrew or Aramaic between AD 50 and 100. Various scholars have debated the exact time frame. The original Hebrew version no longer exists; it has been translated into the canonical Greek version.

Some of the information for this article was gleaned from Jeff Cavin's study: “Matthew, The King and His Kingdom”.

Please join us on Monday evenings at 5:30pm. We meet at St. James for this fabulous study!

Enjoy the Gospel readings according to Matthew during this liturgical year!

Let us Pray to Protect Unborn Children

When the U.S. Supreme Court legalized abortion in the 1973 Roe v. Wade decision, the Catholic community was horrified. Babies came under attack in the place where they should be the safest – in their mother's womb. The over 60 million abortions since the 1973 decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton reflect with heartbreakingly magnitude what Pope Francis meant by a “throwaway culture.”

However, we have great trust in God's providence.

We are reminded time and again in Scripture to seek the Lord's help, and as people of faith, we believe that our prayers are heard. And while, on June 24, 2022, the Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization decision overturned Roe v. Wade, right now state and federal laws, in many instances, are still hostile to preborn children. So, great prayer and advocacy is still very needed. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 373, designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the “Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children”: “In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 (or January 23, when January 22 falls on a Sunday) shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.” Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen promoted a specific prayer for the Spiritual Adoption of an unborn child in danger of abortion, asking people to pray this daily for nine months, often visualizing the child's development and praying for the parents, too, with the belief that God knows these children and their lives can be saved through prayer.

*Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.*
